Criteria for a Corporate Membership

1. Minimum five (5) years incorporated.
2. No spousal or junior memberships are allowed as part of the Corporate Membership.
3. The Corporate Membership is not transferable within the Corporation without the approval of the Board of Directors.
4. Corporations under this category will be invoiced for each Member/designee(s) for Annual and other dues and Food and Beverage Fees consistent with those charged a Full Resident member. The Corporate membership will not be entitled to the benefit of reduced annual dues for senior members.
5. The Corporate Member/designee will enjoy the playing and social privileges of a Full Resident member. However, members under this category cannot propose or second any class of membership.
6. Neither the Corporation nor the Member/designee(s) will own shares in the club. The Corporation and its Member/designees will have no voting rights.

7. Member/designee(s) under this category cannot stand on committees or be elected to the Board of Directors.
8. If there are assessments to the Full Resident category, each Corporate Member/designee(s) under this category will be assessed an equal amount.
9. The Corporation and the Member/designee(s) will be jointly liable for all entrance fees, annual dues, assessments and any other amounts incurred by the Member/designee(s).
10. The transfer fee will be waived for the Corporation regarding a replacement Corporate member/designee if the exiting Corporate Member/designee under this category becomes a York Downs Member (Full Resident, Resident or Senior Resident) and pays the full initiation fee in place at the time of the transfer.
11. The new category will require new application forms and a new agreement regarding the terms of payment and any rights and responsibilities attached to it. Should the club cease to exist, neither the Corporation nor the Member/designee(s) will be entitled to any distributions, nor is the Club or its successors obligated to provide access to the Club or its successor.
12. The Board of Directors from time to time may change the terms and conditions of this membership category.
